ASHFORD GRANGE

To Entertain Quinebaug Pomona on Saturday-Practical Topics for Dis-

Charles A. Wheeler of Storrs, mac-ter of Quinebaug Pomona grange, her issued the following programma for the meeting to be held with Asnford grange, No. 90, at Warrenville, Saturday

The reception committee of Ashford grange which will make you at home and look out for your comfort is composed of Rev. B. C. Bugbee, Brother A. M. Bassett and Sister Bennette. Baker's hall is in Warrenville, near the composition of the c the church.

Morning session will open at 19,20 in the fifth degree for the transaction of general business. It has been suggest-ed that a short period of the morning session be devoted to remarks appreclative of the lives of two past mas-ters who have recently died. Dinner is in charge of Brother Bennetic and Sister A. M. Bassett and Sister Bates.

Sister A. M. Bassett and Sister Bates. The afternoon session will be in the fourth degree and will begin at 1.29. The lecturer's hour will follow and the grange will close in due form about 4.15. The programme:

Address of welcome, Rev. B. C. Bugbee Ashford grange; response, W. Overseer Pearl; piano solo, Brother J. E. Murphy, Ashford grange; address, Co-operation Among Farmers, Dr. Alexander E. Cauce, professor of agricultural economics at the Massachusetts agricultural college; recitation, Miss O. C. Suith; vocal solo, Mrs. Thom; lecture and demonstration, Ac-Thom; lecture and demonstration, Ac-ldity in Soils, Prof. H. D. Newton of the Connecticut agricultural college; quartette from Mansfield

The main address at this meeting is upon one of the most important sub-jects of interest to the furmer and is especially timely in view of the milk strike and the interest which some of road the state granges are taking in it.
Sound opinions upon methods of and fields for co-operation must be based upon facts, and every farmer, for his own financial welfare, ought to inform himself upon this important subject, Dr. Cance is well qualified to instruct

The New Haven road lost nothing on the transaction and gained five cents, the amount of the rebute, as the five cents if placed on interest at 5 per cent. 20 years ago would have equaled itself today. The road had the use of the nickel for 23 years and in that time the interest repaid the original amount.

Life's Percentages.

It sometimes happens that a man play's an errerless game because he accepts mighty few chances; the man in the right garden is pretty sure to have a better fielding record than the shortstop.—Atchison Globe.

It has been the practice in this county when a lawyer wants to file a pleading when a lawyer wants to file a pleading which was overdue to have a motion put on the docket for permission to file it, even through the lawyer on the other side had no objection. Judge Burpee said that he had noticed what the practice in this county was, and he said that where it was agreed that a pleading might be filed, the lawyers should prepare stiplations and file them with the clerk, as an act passed by the last legislature provides. If, however, there is objection from one lawyer in a case to a belated pleading being filed, it will be belated pleading being filed, it will be necessary to get permission from the

Owing to the damp weather, Captain Babcock will be unable to put the steamer Watch Hill on her regular summer trips next week as had been planned, but will start her June 1 on her trips between Stonington and Watch Hill. The boat has been undergoing repairs, cleaning and painting at the Westerly dock for the past four months. Albert Rice of Boston was in town

Frank and Joseph Joseph were in Norwich Tuesday.

Maurice Henry of Providence spent Monday and Tuesday in town.

F. L. Lane of Brocklyn, N. Y., is the guest of Stonington friends. George Allen of Eoston is in town.

On Important Committees. Dr. Charles E. Brayton, who is at-tending the session of the supreme council of the Royal Arcanum at Montreal, has been made a member of the committee on assessments and benefits and medical examination.

Under Age, Yet in Jail. Thomas Johnson of Westerly was arrested Monday in Pawcatuck by Deputy Sheriff Casey, was arraigned on a charge of intoxication. He was under age and Dr. J. H. Weeks of the borough was appointed his guardian. He pleaded guilty and was fined $2 and costs taxed at $13.81. He could not pay, and was taken to New London jail.

Saved from Drowning.

Joseph Wennmaker, while at work on the long wharf at Little Point, fell overboard Sunday, but was able to get out without assistance. Manuel Rose, about 5 years old, was pushed into the water by a playmate and came near drowning, as the water is very deep. He was hauled out by some men who went to his assistance.

James Dally and Gilbert H. Chesebro and families are to move in June from the Brewater house, which has been recently sold, to the Brown house on Elm Street. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ide will move into their new house on July I.

Tomorrow (Thursday) the borough high school baseball team will go to North Stonington and play a game with the Wheeler team.

A Five Days' Display to be Made in

Boston

Mrs. B. B. Tuttle, of Naugatuck, this Mrs. B. B. Tuttle, of Naugatuck, this state, recognized as one of the three or four most distinguished women collectors of orchids in the world, has entered as a competitor in a number of the classes in the orchid exhibition to be given by the Massachusetts Horticultural society in Boston, May 25-30. The Massachusetts Horticultural society, fully impressed with the magnitude of its undertaking, has devo-

nitude of its undertaking, has devoted two years to the preparation of the exhibition, which offers the first opportunity to American collectors for the display in public of horticultural treasures gleaned often at almost fabulous expense from remote tropical regions by scientific hybridization.

Attracted primarily by the splendid opportunity so anorded for the population of this favorite branch of horticultural, to say nothing of the unprecedented value of the cash prizes running in some cases as high as $1,750 in a single class, and the fact that the society is to award so many gold medals, conferring a distinction much more sought than the money rewards, a large number of entries have been made in each class and a number of European enthusiasts have decided to risk their valuable collections to the long voyage across the Atlantiq to try conclusions in the competition.

As a spectacle the orchid show will be of unfergetable beauty and sugarestiveness.
